

Die Mischung macht's.

MIAVIT is an international company with its headquarters in Essen (Oldb.).

With almost 450 employees worldwide, we are a producer of premixes and specialty products primarily for animal nutrition distributing to more than 90 countries.

For expansion of our team we need at the earliest possible date an Intern (m/f/d) for a six-month internship with the possibility for a master thesis.

Internship - social media & content creation (m/f/d)

Your task:

- Strategic preparation of a focus page in social media of our successful phytogetic MIAVIT product family in the area of animal nutrition
- Development and creation of content in collaboration with product management and marketing
- Individual projects and daily business tasks
- Close collaboration with our vibrant international product management team and marketing department

Your profile:

- Master student in international business administration/ agriculture/ online marketing/ social media marketing/ business psychology
- Strong interest or preferably experience in product management, online marketing, social media marketing, content management
- Communication skills paired with perfect English
- Independent and pro-active working

We look forward to receiving your application documents, which we treat with the strictest confidence and in compliance with lock flag. Please send your letter directly to:

What you can expect from us:

- Comprehensive induction training
- Insights into product management of a globally acting company in the animal nutrition sector
- A basic understanding of the global feed and animal nutrition industry
- Motivated colleagues in a family business
- Very good working atmosphere
- Flexible working time
- Staff canteen
- Home office possible
- Compensation for expenditures

Inform and apply:
MIAVIT-Career portal

MIAVIT GmbH

Robert-Bosch-Str. 3 · 49632 Essen (Oldb.) · Germany

Tel. +49 5434 82-743 · karriere@miavit.de · www.miavit.com

