

Women's Careers and Networks Symposium 2011 – Program

Time	Ludwig-Prandtl Lecture Hall	Large Seminar Room	Manfred-Eigen Lecture Hall
10:00 - 10:15			Prof. Ulrike Beisiegel President of the University of Göttingen Opening Address
10:15 - 11:15			Prof. Mary Osborn Group Leader at MPI-BPC Göttingen Keynote Lecture: Making change happen – a European perspective
11:15 - 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 - 12:30	Prof. Blanche Schwappach Director of Biochemistry at the University of Göttingen Doing science and starting a family – how the challenge presents itself in the big science nations	Dr. Anna-Maria Dittrich Junior Group Leader at Hannover Medical School Women in medicine – chance or catastrophe?
12:30 - 13:30	Prof. Christine Lang Managing Director of Organobalance GmbH, Berlin A scientist as entrepreneur – experiences and views of a biologist	Prof. Elisabeth Knust Director at MPI-CBG Dresden, DFG Vice President A scientific career - more than a job
13:30 - 14:30	Lunch
14:30 - 15:30	Elisabeth Schick Coach and Author, Stuttgart Successful and authentic self presentation	Stella Hurtley, Ph.D. Senior Editor at Science Magazine, London Science Publishing and Publishing in Science
15:30 - 15:40		Introduction to the Medical Faculty Mentoring Program (German) by Frauke Ritter
15:30 - 16:00	Coffee Break
16:00 - 16:30	Info Session Mentoring - A chance to catalyze your career including an introduction to the Dorothea-Schlözer Program by Dr. Sylke Ernst and Dr. Manuela Kaiser-Belz
16:30 - 17:30	Cathrin Pauly Founder and Partner of Aspiras Project Consulting, Mainz Student - employee - business founder: An example of a female career in the scientific environment	Prof. Silvie Klein-Franke Consultant for Human Resource Development, Innsbruck Excellence through Diversity: Chances and Risks
17:30	Closing Remarks
from 19:00	Networking Dinner		